Owners Statement

Yankee Glide mares are some of the very best trotting mares to own, every year they produce stakes winners and if you're serious about breeding trotters, you need to own at least one. This mare was a competitive race filly, being stakes placed as a two year old, then taking her record as a three year old. She was then bred, as her value was definitely as a broodmare. She has a gorgeous, black, Swan For All filly in the Hoosier Classic Select Sale, and probably our nicest weanling on the farm, also by Swan For All, which we are retaining to sell as a yearling. She foaled a little late, thus we had to breed her late, but she is in foal to DOVER DAN. Our decision to sell her is strictly based on her being bred late, but don't hold that against her, she just may be one you have to hold over after she foals her Dover Dan baby next year. Dover Dan stood his first season in 2018 and bred a full book, with close to 70 mares being turned away in excess of his 140 book. So you'll be buying a mare here that will have two Swan For All's racing while you're selling a first crop Dover Dan at the yearling sale! Stud fee paid and non-refundable, mare meets all ISB requirements as long as she remains in the state of Indiana upon purchase.
